DENISE M. BLOMMEL is an attorney in Scottsdale, Arizona. She is admitted to practice in the state and federal courts of Arizona and Nevada. Her practice centers on the employer-employee relationship.

Denise is a former Field Attorney with the National Labor Relations Board and a former Assistant Chief Counsel of the Industrial Commission of Arizona. She represents employers and employees in employment and labor matters.

Denise belongs to the State Bar of Arizona, State Bar of Nevada, Community Associations Institute – Central Arizona Chapter, Scottsdale Area Chamber of Commerce, Scottsdale Bar Association, Arizona Employment Lawyers Association, Association for Conflict Resolution and Arizona Association for Conflict Resolution, where she serves on the Board of Directors, and the St. Thomas More Society, where she serves on the Board of Directors. Denise is a frequent presenter for government, business, educational and community groups.

Denise also is one of the authors of the Arizona Employment Law Handbook (two subchapters about occupational safety and health and workers' compensation procedures). She is co-author of two articles in the April 1994 and April 1998 Arizona Attorney about Workers' Compensation, the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Family Medical Leave Act. Denise has served as Chair of the Labor and Employment Law and Workers' Compensation Law Sections of the State Bar of Arizona. She was awarded the State Bar of Arizona's Member of the Year for 1998-1999.

Denise holds a Bachelor of Arts in Government and Economics, with Highest Distinction, Honors, Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi, from the University of Arizona. Her law degree is from Arizona State University.

Denise has served as an officer on the Board of Directors of the Arizona Cactus-Pine Council of Girl Scouts. The Girl Scouts awarded Denise the Thanks Badge in 2000 and the Thanks Badge II in 2005, their highest volunteer honors. She served as a mediator for the U.S. Postal Service for ten years. Denise and her husband, Don Doerres, serve as Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers for Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in Scottsdale.
